On the 16th inst. It is always pleasant to chronicle an evening of real enjoyment to little folks, and Mr. and Mrs. Aston J. Watkins' ball (fancy dress) which took place at their residence, Coeldangred, Randwick, on the evening of June 22, might fairly be reckoned among such. There were about 40 small guests, some of the dresses being very pretty. Miss Yvonne Leverrier, who, by the-way, is a most promising little student of the violin, appeared as Madame de Pompadour; Miss Enid Whiting as a Spanish lady, and Miss Sylvia Whiting as Snowflake. 'The Girl Graduate (Miss Hilda Alecks), French Peasant (Miss Jeanne tiauveron), Red Riding Hood (Miss Eileen Marshall), and Toreador (Master Keith Whiting), were all present, and the hostess also adopted the pretty and picturesque costume of a Normandy peasant, while Master Jack Watkins appeared as an Iolanthe pour. Among the other children we noticed the Misses Edie and Alice Rich, Miss Elaine Whiting, Misses Lottie and Rubv Lee, Miss Jessie Hellicar, Master Victor ATecks, Miss Lily Fesq, the Masters Fesq, Master Harry tiauveron, Master Tom Alatrinson, Master Anderson, Master Willie tilierwin and others.

GARDEN FETE AT RANDWICK

In aid of the Randwick and Coogee Sick and Poor Relief Society a garden fete was held on Saturday in the grounds of Mr W G. Whiting of Astolat, Frenchman's-road, Randwick. Mrs David Storey briefly declared the fete open. The Permanent Artillery Band, under Bandmaster Devery, was pre-sent, and played a short programme of music. In the evening several ladies and gentlemen contributed to a musical programme. The stalls and stallholders were as follow: -Cake stall, Mesdames H.F. Francis and S T Bryen, assisted by Miss Lowe, Miss Ada Lowe, and Miss Louie Lowe; young ladies' fancy stall, Misses Whiting, Hunt, Hellicar, Nellie Bolton, Ruth Beale, and Ina Armstrong; sweets stalls, Mesdames A W Meeks and W T Waters, assisted by Misses Consie Armstrong, Jack Daly, Lucy Bolton, Waters, and Meeks; flower and fruit stall, Mesdames David Storey, Scott, and Boston, assisted by Misses Kelsey, Beale, and Hughes; "bran pie," Miss Sylvia Whiting, tea and refreshment room, Misses Richards, Mills, Butler, Walford, Robertson, Jones, and Elaine Whiting

Dear Andrew

We have consulted our early records with the following results:

We have also found two of the Whiting girls: Sylvia was a day girl from 1893-95 she would have been aged 8 on entry which is quite possible. You queried a VERY Amy. I am assuming this is a misprint and you meant VERA. We have Vera as a day girl 1894 – 95 again very young on entry but not outside the parameters especially with an elder sister attending.

I hope this helps, please don't hesitate to contact me if you need any other information. I will do my best.

Best Wishes

Dear Andrew,

Thank you for your recent enquiry about the attendance of the four Whiting sisters at Ascham during the 1890s and early 1900s.

Firstly, I can confirm that all four sisters attended the school. Secondly, thank you for your information about their dates of birth and their relationship with Linda and Eileen Teece, about which we had no record.

Unfortunately, our records during the time of the first Principal, Miss Marie Wallis, are almost non-existent. Consequently, we have also had to rely on the digitised newspapers for any information about students who attended the school before 1902 and we also had the same information about the violin performance of E Whiting in 1894. I'm sorry that I am not able to confirm whether it was Enid or Elaine.

The only other information we hold about any of the girls is as follows:

Enid (Mrs E N Waters) –two original telegrams sent by Enid in both 1894 and 1895 to classmate Ethel Lane Latham who won the Fairfax Junior and Senior Prizes for being the top girl in the State in the final school exams. There is also a reference to her marriage in the March issue of the school magazine in 1905

Elaine (Mrs R A Phipps-Waugh) – two similar telegrams as mentioned above. Her marriage to Dr Phipps-Waugh is referenced in the September issue of the school magazine, 1905

Sylvia (Dossie) – engagement mentioned in June issue of school magazine, 1904

Vera – potentially appears in two group photographs from 1901 and approximately 1904 held in archives (would need to check); debut at Union Club Ball mentioned in school magazine, May issue, 1906.

I hope this provides you with some helpful information. If you would like copies of the photographs and telegrams, please let me know.

Kind regards,

Ascham School

A pretty wedding, and one which aroused much interest in Randwick, took place in St. Jude's Church, on February 22, between Captain Edward Needham Waters, second son of Mr. E. Waters, of "Claremont," Hawthorn, Victoria, and Miss Enid Whiting, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Whiting, of "Astolat," Randwick. The service, which was fully choral, was performed by the Rev. W. Hough, assisted by the Rev. W. Flower, while Miss Gertrude Palmer presided at the organ, and played the "Wedding March," from "Lohengrin." The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a dainty but simple gown of pure white chiffon over silk, the skirt a mass of tiny frills, and the bodice trimmed with point-de-gaze lace. A coronet of orange blossoms, a long tulle veil, a diamond and turquoise pendant, a diamond bracelet, and a bouquet of white flowers, completed her charming toilette. Her bridesmaids, the Misses Elaine, Sylvia and Vera Whiting, Miss Waters (the bridegroom's stator), and Miss Gladys Teece, wore smart frocks of cream glace silk and ivory picture hats, and carried bouquets of deep red roses, while their brooches, in the form of wreaths of forget-me-nots in turquoise and pearls, were the gifts of the bridegroom. Mr. G. J. Crispin acted as best man, and Dr. R. Phipps Waugh, Messrs. K. Whiting and Leslie Moore, were the groomsmen. After the ceremony, the guests adjourned to "Astolat," where they were received by Mr. and Mrs. Whiting, the latter wearing a beautiful gown of golden brown silk and chiffon, and a toque to match, trimmed with shaded chrysanthemums, a bouquet of the same flowers finishing a harmonious ensemble. After the newly married pair had received the congratulations of their friends, and the presents, which were very numerous and admirably chosen, had been viewed, the company assembled in a large marquee on the lawn, where the wedding breakfast was served, and the usual toasts were honoured. Later in the afternoon the happy pair left for Pennant Hills, whence they proceeded to Tasmania, Mrs. Waters wearing a well-made gown of cream fishbone cloth, trimmed with pale blue kid, and a pale blue hat to correspond.

Among the invited guests, most of whom were present, were Sir Edmund, Lady, and Miss Barton, Sir W., Lady, and Miss M'Millan, Sir John and the Misses See, the Hon. A. W., Mrs., and Miss Meeks, Mr. E. and Miss Waters (Melbourne), Mr. and Mrs. P. Waters, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Waters (Melbourne), the Hon. At St. Jude's Church, Randwick, on Wednesday, February 22, the marriage of Miss Enid Whiting, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Whiting, of Astolat, Randwick, with Mr. Edward Waters, second son of Mr. E. Waters, of Claremont, Hawthorn, Victoria, was solemnised by the Rev. William Hough, in the presence of a large number of guests and spectators. The church was prettily deco-rated for the occasion, and the service was full choral, Miss Gertrude Palmer presiding at the organ. The bride's dress was of white chiffon over glace silk, trimmed with point de gaze lace, and a white tulle veil was arranged over her bridal wreath. Her ornaments were a diamond bracelet (the gift of the bridegroom) and a diamond and turquoise pendant (the gift of the bridegroom's father), and she carried a bouquet of white roses and heather. Five bridesmaids were in attendance-the Misses Elaine, Sylvia, and Vera Whiting (sisters), Miss Waters (sister of the bridegroom), and Miss Teece. They wore Ivory-white glace silk dresses, and white hats, and carried bouquets of red roses, which, with their pearl and turquoise, brooches, were gifts from the bridegroom. Mr. G. Jervis Crespin was best man, and Mr. W. Howe, Dr. R. Phipps Waugh, Mr. W. Moore, and Mr. Keith Whiting the grooms-men. A largely attended reception was subsequently held at Astolat by Mr. and Mrs. Whiting, and the wedding breakfast was served in a marquee erected on the lawn. Mr. and Mrs. E. Waters left later for their honeymoon. The bride's travelling dress was of cream cloth, trimmed with pale blue leather, and a blue picture hat

A largely-attended drawing-room meeting was held at the residence of Mrs. L. W. Lev>, Cahors, Macleay-street, Potts Point, on Thursday afternoon, August 24, in connection with the opening of a "creche" in Woolloomooloo. About 50 ladies were present, the gathering being a most representative one. Mrs. Davenport presided, and gave an outline of what the creche committee hoped to accomplish. Sir Sydney Jones spoke in favour of the creche, and gave some of his experiences. Miss Newton and Miss Arnold gave short addresses on the benefits which have resulted from the work of the "day nurseries" in America. Mrs. Dane made an interesting explanation of what the work was, and Miss Jenkins also spoke. A committee was formed, with Mrs. Davenport as president, other members being Mrs. Whiting, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. W. Fairfax, Mrs. M'Donald Dill, Mrs. Maitland, Miss Linda Teece, and Miss Sylvia Whiting. Miss Cohen is the hon. treasurer, and Mrs. Dane the hon. secretary.

St Jude's Church, Randwick, was crowded with guests and spectators on Wednesday afternoon to witness the marriage of Mr. Richard Andrew Phipps Waugh, only son of Dr and Mrs. Waugh, Parramatta, with Miss Elaine M. Whiting, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Whiting, Astolat, Randwick. The ceremony was performed by the Venerable Archdeacon Abbott. The bride wore a handsome dress of ivory Liberty satin, trimmed with Brussels lace, and a wreath of white heath and orange blossom. Her bouquet of white flowers and turquoise bracelet were the gifts of the bridegroom. The bridesmaids were the Misses Sylvia and Vera Whiting (sisters), Miss Teece, Miss C. Waugh (sister of the bridegroom), and Miss Frida Lamb. They wore pale blue soft silk dresses, and blue hats trimmed with violets. Their bouquets of violets and pearl brooches were the gifts of the bridegroom. Dr. H. Kendal acted as best man and Dr. F. Watson, Mr. K. Whiting, Mr. Leslie Moore, and Mr. C. Whiting were the groomsmen. At the conclusion of the service a reception was held by Mr. and Mrs. Whiting, who entertained a large number of friends at their residence, Astolat. Amongst the guests were Lady Barton and Miss Barton, Lady M'Millan, Sir P. Sydney Jones and the Misses Jones, Mrs. Richards and the Misses Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Brunton, Mrs. George Cohen, Dr. and Mrs. Waugh, Mr. and Mrs. F. A Fashionable Wedding

Dr. R. P. Waugh's Marriage The Bells of St. Jude's

The wedding bells rang merrily out at St. Jude's, Randwick, on Wednesday afternoon last, for the marriage of Dr. R. Phipps Waugh (one of the most popular of Parramatta's younger sons) and Miss Elaine Whiting, daughter of Mr. W. G. Whiting, of 'Astolat,' Randwick. The day was a lovely one for the event --a bright, sunny, spring afternoon; and many hundreds of the popular young doctor's Parramatta friends wished him well in their secret aspirations, for few marriages of late years have awakened as much kindly interest in local circles. The bride (who was given away by her father) wore a lovely gown of white liberty satin, with Brussels lace, made with yoke and bertha of Brussels lace, wreath of heather and orange blossom; a large tulle veil falling to the hem of the skirt. The bridegroom's gift was a gold bangle, studded with turquoises. The bride was attended by five bridesmaids — Miss Dossie

Whiting, chief bridesmaid, and Miss Vera, Whiting (sisters of the bride); Miss Cassie Waugh (sister of the bridegroom) ; Miss Teece (cousin of the bride), and Miss Frieda Lamb. They wore dresses of pale blue soft silk over blue glaze, with transparent yokes of net and bertha of Mechlin lace ; hats of pale blue crinoline straw, trimmed with different shades of violets. The gifts of the bridegroom to the bridesmaids were gold brooches, with pearls, and violet posies tied with streamers of blue ribbon velvet. The The groomsmen were Dr. Herbert Kendall, best man; Dr. Fred. Watson; Mr. Keith Whiting, Mr. Leslie Moore and Mr. Cedric Whiting. The marriage ceremony was celebrated at St. Jude's Church, Randwick, Archdeacon Abbott, of Tamworth, a friend of the bride and bridegroom, officiating. The church had been tastefully decorated for the event with palms and ferns ; and the service was fully choral, the hymns rendered being 'The voice that breathed o'er Eden' and 'Oh, perfect love.' Miss Hough presided at the organ. The reception was held at 'Astolat,' where the breakfast was served in a spacious marquee on the lawn. The one toast proposed was that of 'The Bride and Bridegroom' by Archdeacon Abbott. The bridegroom responded. The centre table, where the bridal party sat, and on which was placed the wedding cake, was decorated with jonquils and snowdrops, and a large floral bell was suspended over the wedding cake. The other tables were decorated with violets. Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Waugh left by the 5.27 train for Medlow, and on Saturday leave by the Oruba for a trip to Melbourne. They will stay in the Victorian capital for a fortnight. The bride's travelling dress was of pale grey tweed with pale blue cloth facings and white embroidered vest; cream lace hat with blue rosettes and pink roses. Mrs. Whiting (mother of the bride) wore biscuit lace, dotted with brown velvet over glaze skirt, and cream toque with lilac and dark red roses, and carried a bouquet of purple hyacinths. Mrs. Waugh — who was accompanied by Dr. I. Waugh — was in black brocaded satin with white satin and jet trimmings and black sequin bonnet with pink rose buds. Miss Joan Waugh's dress was cream lustre with guipure and vest with folds of blue merveilleux and black feather hat ; Miss Isabel Waugh's, a cream, with satin yoke and lace; pale blue straw hat, with, violets.

Mrs. Edward Waters (Melbourne), sister of the bride, wore black glaze silk with cream hat and red roses, and carried a lovely bouquet of violets; Mrs. Bennett (aunt of the bride) wore white glaze, veiled with black lace, cream toque with deep pink roses; Mrs. Palmer (aunt of the bride) wore black silk dress, and bonnet touched with lilac; Miss Cairnes, grey tweed dress, faced with, white cloth and braid trimmings, pale blue hat with roses and forgot-me-nots ; Mrs. Reginald Bow-man, navy blue check silk and black hat; Mrs. Richards (of Newlands), black merveilleux dress with guipure vest and pale blue trimming; Mrs. Herbert McCulloch, fawn cloth with black trimming and black toque; Mrs. S. Walford, mauve crepe de chine and floral toque ; Mrs. Herbert Lloyd, pale pink floral muslin dress, with mauve chiffon hat with pink roses; Miss Dora Cairnes, pale grey dress with hat of moss green straw and flowers; Miss Carter, pale blue silk dress with black tulle hat; Miss Rita Terry, cream spotted net dress and cream felt hat with feathers ; Mrs. Galbraith, pale blue soft silk with blue straw hat and red roses; Mrs. Brunton, brown crepe de chine and toque of same shade ; Miss Mona Richards, brown crepe de chine; Miss Hall, cream hopsack; Miss Ewan, pink spotted silk muslin, with boa of green and white rainbow chiffon and black hat; Mrs. Teece, dove colored voile with guipure bodice; Mrs. Williamson, black figured silk with white tulle toque veiled in black lace.

Amongst the guests present were: Mrs. E. Bennett, Mrs. F. Davenport, Mrs. and Miss Bauer, Mr., Mrs. and Miss T. P. Purves, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hough; Mrs. Wormald ; Mr. and Mrs. Sam. Hordern ; Mr. and Mrs. Cameron; Mr., Mrs. and the Misses Cairnes, Dr. and Mrs. Maitland, Mrs. and Miss. Richard Jones; Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Waters, Mrs. and the Misses Curtis; Dr.

Last Thursday afternoon Lady Fairfax opened a "Handkerchief Sale and Garden Fete" at Astolat, Avoca-street, Randwick, the residence of Mrs. W. G. Whiting, who kindly lent it for the occasion. The object of the fete was to raise funds in aid of the Creche shortly to be opened at Woolloomooloo. Lady Fairfax declared the fete open in a few appropriate words, and asked Mrs. Dane, the hon. secretary of the Creche movement, to explain the nature of the work, and the practical help the "Creche" will be to many poor hard working mothers. Mrs. Dane said more funds were needed so as to open the Creche at once, and so allow tiny children to, be taken care of whilst the mothers were working, instead of as at present, being locked up in charge of children, perhaps only live or six years old, all day. Already one cot had been presented by a number of girls who had promised to provide the necessary funds for keeping it up; and blankets, cots, and furniture for the rooms, babies' chairs, toys, etc, would be most acceptable to the committee. Mrs. Davenport is the president, Mrs. Wilfred Fairfax, and Miss Sylvia Whiting, the vice presidents, Mrs. Dane the hon. secretary, and Miss Julio Cohen the lion, treasurer. The stalls at the fete were prettily arranged in the garden, and tea and refreshments were served on tables placed beneath shady trees and decorated with flowers. It is expected that about £60, clear of expenses, will be handed over to the fund. Amongst the visitors were Sir P. Sydney Jones and the Misses Jones, Miss Fairfax, Mrs. and Miss Whiting, Mrs. and Miss Palmer, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. and Misa Teece, Mrs. B. Cohen, Mrs. Heron, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. Thorne, Mrs. Marsden, Mrs. M'Quade, Mrs. Bowes, Mrs. G. Cohen, Mrs. Graham, and Mrs. A. Hill. The following ladies presided at the different stalls:- Sweet stall, Miss Cecilia Stephen, Mrs. Gilbert-Lodge, Miss Clarke; handkerchief, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Dane, Miss A. Cook, Miss Wessburg; cake, Mrs. Wilfred Fairfax. Mrs. Fairfax Ross, Mrs. Macdonald Gill, Mrs. W. Chisholm; novelty, the Misses Linda Teece, Sylvia Whiting, Julie Cohen; tea, Mrs. Whiting, Mrs. Maitland, Miss M Sands, Miss M. Goldschmidt; toy, the Misses Vera Whiting and Eileen Teece

For some time past the members of the Sydney Day Nursing Association, which was formed last August, have been quietly at work organising a day nursery for the babies of working mothers, and it is gratifying to know that their efforts have met with great success, and that the creche-or, as it is in future to be known-the Sydney Day Nursery-has been opened at 126 Dowling-street, Woolloomooloo. Already there are five little In-mates under the care of Nurse Breden, who belongs to the District Nursing Association. The house has been furnished by private donations, and "circles" of girls have given "cots," which they undertake to support with an inmate during the year. No child will be received in the "nursery" until satisfactory proof has been given to the committee that by taking charge of the child the mother will be enabled, and intends, to use her time in earning her living. It is also necessary for the parent to bring a letter from, a responsible person, known to the committee, showing that her case is a genuine one. Children are received up to the age of three years. The aim of the Day Nursing Association is to be able to care not only for the babies, but also for older children after kindergarten and school hours, to give them wholesome employment, and keep them off the street. Mrs. F. Davenport is the president of the association, Mrs. Wilfred Fairfax and Miss Sylvia Whiting the vice-presidents. Mrs. Dane is the hon. secretary, and Miss Julie Cohen the hon. treasurer. The committee includes Mrs. Whiting, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Macdonald Gill, Mrs. H. Maitland. Mrs. Gilbert Lodge, and the Misses Cecil Stephen, L. Teece, F. E. Stephens, and Goldschmidt. The little children at present in the nursery appear very happy and contented. The matron says it is curious to find that they prefer water or cocoa to milk, and treacle to butter. A visit to the "nursery" is full of interest, and the matron is pleased to show it to any visitors

Sydney Mail and New South Wales Advertiser (NSW : 1871 - 1912), Wednesday 14 February 1906, page 443

A week, or two ago I told you a little about the 'Day Nursery' which has just been established in Dowling-street, Woolloomooloo. Last week I paid the 'Nursery' a visit and heard something of the working of the new establishment. Mrs. Dane, so well known in kindergarten circles, is the secretary, and she was receiving the visitors, who had been specially invited to afternoon-tea, and to see what was being done for the tiny children. Upstairs, in a sunny room, under the charge of Matron Breden, five mites were to be found. One fat, fair baby, the delight of any mother's heart, sat on the floor and watched interestedly all that was going on around him. 'Boronia' and 'Rupert,' a tiny brother and sister, also came in for a share of notice. No child will be received in the 'Day Nursery' until satisfactory proof has been given to the committee that, by taking charge of the child, the mother will be enabled and intends to use her time in earning a living. It is also necessary for the parent to bring a letter from a responsible person, showing that the case is a genuine one. and giving a reasonable guarantee that the child will be removed at the close of the day. Children are received up to the age of three years. Mrs. Wilfred Fairfax, Mrs. W. G. Whiting, Mrs. H. Maitland, Mrs. Macdonald Gill, Mrs. Frank Davenport, and Mrs. E. Bennett, are among the interested folk. Both Miss Sylvia Whiting, and Miss Linda Teece are office bearers, Miss Teece presiding over the Woollahra 'Cot,' and Miss Whiting over the Randwick one. Although the 'Nursery' is closed at half-past 6, tiny white cots stand in the room upstairs, and in which the children may have their nap during the day-time. Several well-known medical men have also volunteered their services if required. Included among them are Dr. Blackburn, Dr. Wilfred Fairfax, Dr. Maitland, and Dr. Waugh (Miss Whiting's brother-in-law). On Fridays nine little one's generally occupy the 'Nursery,' the mothers paying the sum of threepence for each child, unless there be two in one family, when a reduction to twopence is made. The 'Nursery' is supported entirely by voluntary subscriptions or by entertainments, a fete being recently held at Randwick in aid of the good cause. It took place in the grounds of Astolat, the residence of Mrs. W. G. Whiting, and was formally declared open by Lady Fairfax.

An afternoon tea party was given at 'Jean's' rooms, in George-street, on Thursday last, the hostesses being a number of girl friends of Mr. Samuel Cook, who had assembled to wish him 'bon voyage' prior to his departure for England in the R.M.S. Marmora. On behalf of the girls Miss Angus presented the guest of the afternoon with a morocco leather case, containing the names of the hostesses. Mr. Cook responded by a short speech, in which he expressed his appreciation, both of the presentation and the thought which prompted it. At the close of the afternoon Mrs. Gordon Craig voiced the thoughts of those present by wishing him a pleasant holiday and a safe and speedy return to Sydney. Mr. Cook departed to the strains of 'For he's a jolly good fellow.' sung enthusiastically and harmoniously. The hostesses were Mrs. Gordon Craig, Mrs. S. Cook, Mrs. M. F. Ariel, Mrs. Hale, Mrs. P. Pickering, the Misses Ellfe and Blanche Curnow, Miss Smith, Miss Angus, Miss Tighe, The Misses Begg, Miss [Vera]

Whiting and Miss Sylvia Whiting, the Misses Smyth, Miss Davis, Miss Sands, Miss Crouch, and Miss Muriel Rutter. The guest of the day was accompanied by his daughters, Miss Cook, Miss Annie Cook, Mrs. Dane, and Mrs. Maitland.

Dancing men were certainly in the majority at the girls' dance at Baumann's Rooms on Friday night, a fact which it is extremely pleasant to relate. Most of the balls to-day are arranged by the womenfolk, and all that the men are asked to do is to come and dance. This they appear to be doing this year with a good deal of energy. The entertainment on Friday was very well done indeed, and reflected much credit on the committee, the secretary (Miss Currie-Elles), and the treasurer (Miss Enid Purves.) The young hostesses, all well-known society maidens, included Miss Lydia Abbott, Miss Dora Bauer, Miss Blaxland, Miss Gladys Bowker, Miss B Baxter-Bruce, Miss Cora Carey, Miss Davies, Miss Currie-Elles, Miss Alma Falk, Miss B Friend, Miss N. Griffiths, Miss Nona Hay, Miss B Ivey, Miss Violet Jackson, Miss May King, Miss Nancy King, Miss Constance McMillan, Miss Enid Purves, Miss Gay Robertson, Miss Enid Russell, Miss Alice Norton-Russell, Miss Muriel Watson, Miss Sylvia Whiting, and Miss Daisy Windeyer — twenty-four in all.

To meet his Excellency the Governor and Miss Rawson, the Primate and Miss Saumarez Smith issued invitations to a garden party at Bishopscourt on Saturday afternoon. Fortunately, the day was a fine and sunny one. The wind blew in an uncomfortable fashion; but it was exceedingly pleasant in the shade of the large trees. A string band played an enjoyable programme of music. The Primate and one of his daughters welcomed the visitors just at the gate. The Rev. H. Saumarez Smith also assisted in the reception. At about 4 o'clock the National Anthem announced the arrival of the viceregal party. His Excellency and Miss Rawson were accompanied by Mrs. Harrison Smith, and Miss Vaughan, and attended by Captain Leslie Wilson, A.D.C. Miss Rawson wore a dainty dress of the finest French -muslin in plain cream, the skirt inset at the hem with a band of Malines lace, and trimmed at intervals with pink roses in applique. The bodice was trimmed with handsome lace, and a cream hat with pale cream poppies was added. Mrs. Harrison Smith was in cream grass -lawn inset with black lace, and a white hat with feathers and a touch of bright green. Miss Vaughan wore pompadour muslin, and a cream hat with a tamo'shanter crown of cream chiffon. Lady Fawke wore a plum-coloured crepe de chine and cream lace, and a toque of rose foliage, and pastel-tinted roses at the side. Mrs. Charles Napier looked well in heliotrope crepe de chine, and a large hat trimmed with wine-tinted roses. Lady Stephen was in black and white striped taffeta, and a black picture hat. Light refreshments of all kinds were served in a marquee, at small tables on the lawn, as well as in the breakfast-room. The Misses Saumarez Smith assisted in the hospitalities, as also did their sister-in-law, Mrs. H. Saumarez Smith, who wore cream crepe de chine with touches of lace, and a blue and cream hat. The guests included Miss Darley, Sir Henry Stephen, Sir James Fairfax and Miss Fairfax, Mrs. Puissell-French and Miss Dorothy French, Mr. and Mrs. Monson Paul, and Miss Paul, Mrs. Cartwright Ashe, Judge and Mrs. Backhouse, Mr. J. SYDNEY DAY NURSERY ASSOCIATION.

In response to the invitation of the president and committee of the Sydney Day Nursery Association, a number of visitors assembled on Wednesday afternoon last at Rose-street, Darlingtong, The guests were received by Mrs. Frank Davenport (president) and Mrs. A. Backhouse (president of the Woolloomooloo branch), and shown over the building. Afternoon tea was served at about 4 o'clock. The object of the association is to properly care for the babies of poor working mothers in Sydney during the hours when the mothers are forced to work, and the establishment of day nurseries in the needy sections of the city.' The number of children on the books is 48, the average daily attendance 25, the children admitted since August 97, and the number of children who received attention from the matron 7825. This only goes to show what a great boon the day nursery is. The 'circles' of helpers continue to give the most practical assistance. Miss Rosalie Goldschmidt is the hon. secretary, and works j with enthusiasm for the good cause. The j circles are at present supporting six cots, and | it is hoped that during the year more circles will be formed. Miss Goldschmidt will give full particulars as to the formation of a 'circle,' and will attend any gathering of girls to explain its object. Amongst those present on Wednesday were Mrs. Sawkins, Mrs. Percy Cooley, Mrs. R. Binnie, Mrs. Leonard Dobbin, Mrs. Gilbert Lodge (hon. secretary), Mrs. Leslie Moore, Miss Ethel Ranken, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Dane, Miss Enid Marks, Miss Muriel Lee, the Misses Goldschmidt, Mrs. E. TATTERSALLS CLUB RACES.

NEW YEAR'S DAY.

The welcome rain which ushered in the new year, cleared off completely at about noon, and the day onward was fine and enjoyable. Consequently a fair number of society folk went out to Randwick for the last day's racing in connection with the - Summer meeting. After, the showers the lawns in front of the members' stand were fresh and green, while the garden beds were ablaze with phlox and other bright flowers. There was nothing specially startling in the way of toilettes, and as a rule rather sombre gowns were worn on account of the uncertain = appearance of the skies. Mrs. Phipps Waugh, mole-coloured gown of silk crepe; and a Tagal straw hat massed with varie-coloured flowers. Her sister (Mrs. Leslie Moore), pale-pink linen crash, trimmed with rows of buttons and touches of white lace, and a cream hat with feathers and flowers.

CLAIM UNDER MORTGAGE.

King v. Whiting and another.

The plaintiff, Robert Joshua King, sued Dr. Keith Moore Whiting, claiming £5895/14/9, alleged to be due as principal and interest accruing under two Indentures of mortgage. The plaintiff alleged that he advanced £400 to the defendant, who was a beneficiary with others in what was known as the Moore Estate, and £6000, the loans being secured on mortgage. The defendant, in his pleas, said that he did not give a mortgage for £400, but for £300, and that the indenture was fraudulently altered by a solicitor who was acting in the matter. He further alleged that he had repaid the £300, and denied that he had given a further mortgage for £6000. In a second action, the plaintiff sued Wilfred Leslie Moore, and Sylvia Dorothy Moore, his wife, to recover other sums of money alleged to have been advanced on mortgage. Defendants replied that they had repaid the sums claimed to the duly authorised agents of the plaintiff. Mr. Halse Rogers (instructed by Messrs. Stephen, Jaques, and Stephen) appeared for the plaintiff; and Mr. Boyce and Mr. J. A. Ferguson (instructed by Mr. H. J. Asplnall) for the defendants in both cases.
